

Central California Animal Disaster Team

“Disaster Response For Animals”

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN HELPING ANIMALS DURING DISASTERS?

“INTRODUCTION TO THE CCADT” VOLUNTEER ORIENTATION WORKSHOP

Wednesday, April 4, 2018 6:00 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

Woodward Park Regional Library
944 E. Perrin Ave. (Champlain & Perrin Aves.)
Fresno, CA 93720

Register for this FREE workshop to become part of the animal response team that helps animals during crisis situations. CCADT provides services to Fresno, Madera, Kings, Merced, Tulare, Mariposa, and Kern counties.

The following topics will be discussed:

- Mission & Purpose of the CCADT
- Types of Volunteer Positions
- Training Requirements
- Review of Policies & Procedures
- Deployment: Preparation & What To Expect
- Educating our Communities On Disaster Preparedness

Registration is required. You may email Mary Schnee, at maryschnee@ccadt.org. Please include your name and a telephone number where you may be contacted if necessary.

Deadline to register: March 30, 2018

Emergency Animal Shelter
“Detwiler Fire” - Mariposa County

Large Animal Emergency Shelter
“Goose Fire” - Fresno County

Educating The Public On Disaster
Preparedness for Animals At Community Events.

MISSION: To mitigate the loss of human and animal lives by providing disaster response assistance for displaced animals during natural and human-caused disasters in Central California; to promote the prevention of cruelty to animals; and to foster the human-animal bond.